OUR more or less esteemed friend "W" seems to be the only man in western Nebraska who has the temerity to defend Senator Akers' action in regard to the irrigation bill. It is well to notice however, that both Akers and "W" are ready for interment in the political graveyard of western Nebraska.

THERE is a pretty well founded rumor in circulation to the effect that Judge Neville will not have smooth sailing in the pop convention which will nominate a district judge this fall. The obstacles which are being placed in the Judge's path are such that it will require him to use considerable of headwork to overcome them.

THE little squib which appeared in these columns last week has brought out the information that certain leaders of the populist party are working the wires so as to knock Newell Burritt out of a re-nomination for county clerk. As Burritt is chairman of the county central committee and has worked faithfully for his party, the scheme to shelve him appears very ungenerous.

TWO years deputyship in the county treasurer's office has satisfied A. D. Orr, and it is generally understood that he has been stated as the pop candidate for county superintendent this fall. Orr had a strong hankering for the treasurership and intended making a fight for the nomination, but Buchanan's friends promised him the nomination for superintendent and the threatened friction between the treasurer and his deputy was thus avoided.

EDWARD O. Atkinson, the Boston economist, gave a novel dinner at the residence of Assistant Secretary Hamlin, in Washington. Seven courses, all cooked by Mr. Atkinson, were served. The entire cost of the dinner, exclusive of the floral decorations, was $1.50. Those present, besides Mr. Atkinson, were Secretary and Mrs. John G. Carlisle Secretary and Miss Morton, ex-Postmaster-general and Mrs. W.
S. Bissell, the Japanese Minister, and Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin.

THE impression that many have that the anti-cigarette bill passed by the last legislature makes it unlawful for any one to sell or give away cigarettes or material for their composition, is entirely wrong. The original bill was in that form, but it was amended, after having been twice stolen, and as it now stands on the statute book it merely prohibits the sale or giving of cigarettes to persons under twenty-one years. It goes into effect August 1. The bill will have but little effect in doing away with the death-inviting habit of cigarette smoking.

MYRTLE MIXTURE.

Mrs. Bramhall of Iowa is visiting her sister Mrs. Pease.
Misses Mary and Anna Wiberg have returned home from North Platte after a few months stay there.

D. C. Schramling and wife have moved on to D. Brunk's farm. It is understood that they will farm some on Joe Little's farm.

An Easter entertainment was given at the new Myrtle school house Saturday evening. It was composed of speaking, recitation, reading, singing and music.

Rev. Derryberry complimented the people of the district for the neat construction of the school house, as all the work was done by the people of the district superintended by Chas. Wiberg.

J. A. Moore returned from Maxwell, Neb., Sunday where he had been teaching vocal music all winter.

Quite a number of Myrtle people attended the teacher's meetings at Gandy Saturday last and report it quite interesting.

Literary society at White Plains closed last Friday night with a good program well carried out.

Miss Olive Muir of Sutherland is the guest of G. M. Wilson.

Maxwell Melange.

Andy Workman spent Saturday in North Platte.
Ed. DeLaney spent Tuesday in North Platte.

Miss Mary Magovern, recently from Ireland, is living with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. P. F.
Dolan.

A light shower of rain fell here on Tuesday morning making every one feel good after the wind storm of the previous day.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Marie of Brady

Island, formerly of Maxwell, were visiting old friends here last Sunday.

TWO Sunday schools will be organized in Maxwell in the school house next Sunday, April 21st. The Catholic Sunday school will commence at 1 o'clock p. m. and last until 2:30, while the Union Sunday school will begin at 3 o'clock and last until 4:30. All are cordially invited to attend.

John Moore left Maxwell last Sunday to visit friends in Gandy and does not expect to return for a long time.

There will be a dance in Maxwell to-night. All expect to have a pleasant time.

Messrs. Wm. Hendy, Fred Elliott and H. Ridgely, of North Platte, attended our literary society last Saturday night.

The singing school closed last Thursday night, or in other words, the singing class graduated from the Maxwell singing school, conducted by John Moore, and contrary to Geo. Clark's prediction, the class did give an entertainment inside of two years, nevertheless, we thank him. People don't often receive compliments two years before they deserve them.

At the last meeting of the literary society the attendance was larger than it has been before.
During the first part of the programme the singing school, conducted by Mr. Moore, combined with the literary exercises, all of which everyone enjoyed very much and will long remember with pleasure.
The programme was: Music, by Miss McCullough; recitation, by Ida Powell; singing, by the singing school; singing, by the Misses Lewis; "Round" Three Blind Mice, by the singing school; musical duet, by Miss McCullough and Miss Dolan; violin solo, by Sam Brooks; song, "The Book Agent," by the singing school; Swede song, by Alma Wicklund, Jennie Wicklund, Hilda Lunquist and Minnie Stromberg; recitation, by Mary Hanrahan; singing, by the Maxwell school; instrumental music, by May Dolan; song, "Dance Durdron," by the singing school; instrumental music by Mr. Moore; "Round," "Bo-peep," by the singing school; Swede song, by Hilda Lunquist and Minnie Stromberg; music, by Mr. Bigger-staff; banjo solo, by Mr. Nickerson; song, "Good Night," by the singing school. As it was very late there was no debate held. On next Saturday evening there will be a debate between the North Platte and Maxwell literary societies.

The question is "Resolved, that the free coinage of American product of silver would be better for this country than the free and unlimited coinage." Those on the debate are, affirmative, Messrs. Ridgley, Hendy and Elliott, of North Platte; negative, Messrs. Mulliken, Roberts and Dolan, of Maxwell.
The debate will be held in our school house, and when it is finished literary society will not be held again until next fall—as every one is now too busy to attend.

THOMAS KELTNER and SARAH R. KELTNER, defendants, will take notice that on the 10th day of April, 1895, Little Tuttle plaintiff herein, filed her petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by the defendants to N. W.
McGee upon the south half of the north half of the southwest quarter and lots 5 and 6, of section 14, in township 18 north, of range 30 west, except six acres or of the southeast corner of lot six now owned by the city of North Platte, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note dated March 1, 1893, for the sum of $800.00 and due and payable in five years from the date hereof. That there is now due upon said note and mortgage the sum of $200.00 with interest from March 9th, 1895, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, plaintiff prays for a decree that defendants be required to pay the same, or that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due.
You are required to answer said petition on or before the 20th day of May, 1895.
Dated April 10th, 1895.
LIZZIE TUTTLE, Plaintiff.
